

Proverbs 11

Opening Prayer: Heavenly Father, I pray that you will impart your wisdom to me today. Thank you for this day and for the goodness, grace, and mercy that you give me every day.

Comments/Insights – Basic Scripture Truth: Verse 14 caught my attention. God is telling us that if a person is wise, he or she will get advice from godly people of good judgment and character before making any decision. We should find a righteous person for counsel. When one does not seek godly counsel, they are going to fail. Mistakes are made and this causes additional problems that affect those in our sphere of influence.

Application to my Life: This scripture not only helps me personally, but it helps me to teach those who seek my counsel. This scripture helps others to see that what I've been saying concerning counsel is not what I think, but is directly from the Word of God. Godly counsel helps all of us to find the answers to life's problems. There is safety in the multitude of counselors.

Closing Prayers: Heavenly Father, I thank you for this truth and ask you to help me impart it to those whom you send to me for counsel. I ask your forgiveness for the sins I have committed each day. I ask that you would help me to think about what I say to others. Bring anything that is displeasing to you to my attention before I say or do anything ungodly. In your precious son's name. Amen.
